

Terms and Conditions of Corporate Membership

Introduction

These terms sets out the nature of the relationship between The Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport (UK) and the Corporate Member, and the obligations of both parties.

What the CILT(UK) undertake to do for the Corporate Member

CILT(UK) will provide the services and support, as listed in their Corporate Member proposal/renewal document.

What the Corporate Member undertakes to do

The Corporate Member is encouraged to display their Corporate Member credentials on their website, paperwork, etc, but in the event of the company no longer holding current Corporate Membership, they agree to remove such references.

Termination

Corporate Member status will be deemed no longer active, if the company has not made payment of the membership invoice within 90 days of date of invoice.

Should the company wish to terminate their Corporate Membership during their current 12 months period, no refund for the outstanding period will be available.
